

Alain Badiou, Being and Event, Parts I and IV

導讀人：李鴻瓊

日期：2009/10/17

Part I: Being

1. the one and the multiple
2. presentation and situation
3. count-as-one and onelessness
4. consistent multiplicity and inconsistent multiplicity
5. Heidegger vs. Badiou
6. presentation of presentation; being qua being
7. Plato: "If the one is not, nothing is."
8. plurality vs. insistent multiplicity
9. "there is"
10. two sides of nothing
11. singularity
12. nothing, void, and subtraction

Part IV: The Event

1. eventual site
2. the abnormal and the singular
3. natural and historical situations
4. on the edge of the void and foundation
5. the event: localizable and supernumerary
6. eventual site and the event
7. matheme of the event
8. event as ultra-one
9. interpretive intervention
10. not-being-qua-being
11. Mallarmé: event in his poem, A Cast of Dice
12. event as chance and necessity
13. ethics: decide from the standpoint of the undecidable