

Service Learning III: Civil Engineering Buddy Program (Civil Buddy) For Fall Semester 2020

Announced on July 20, 2020

A. Goal

To help international students quickly adapt to the lives in Taiwan and immerse in NTU's study environment, the Department of Civil Engineering has formed a service learning group called "Civil Buddy." This group not only aim to provide necessary assistance but also organize inter-cultural activities. Through the planning and implementation of activities, the interaction between local and international students would be (re)activated, students' global perspective would be broadened, the spirit and attitude towards service learning could be developed, and managerial and leadership abilities would be cultivated.

B. Instructor

Professor Kuo-Hsin YANG (CEB 306A / 02-3366-4242 / khyang@ntu.edu.tw)

C. Mode of Service

Both Civil Buddies (service providers) and international students (service receivers) will be grouped. Each service providing group can decide how to fulfill the idea of service learning when engaging with the given service receiver group.
