Quiver algebra, BPS invariants and wallcrossing

WU-YEN CHUANG*

February 22, 2010

Abstract: In this talk we discuss the BPS invariants in physics/string theory and their wallcrossing under the variations of the stability conditions using quiver techniques. The connection with the generalized Donaldson-Thomas invariants and some concrete examples like resolved conifold will be discussed. I will also present new results of higher rank DT invariants if time permits.

^{*}Rutgers University, U.S.A.