

Library Fund

(for Subscribing Academic Journals)

NTU strives for innovation and excellence, and keep up with the times, so our academic periodicals and electronic resources are indispensable tools for research. However, our libraries have faced operational deficits in recent years, and this dilemma is a source of anxiety for NTU. As a result, we hope donors from all walks of life can gift a kernel of their kindness to show practical support for NTU, and help us get farther by harnessing our capacity for academic greatness!
